

Opening hours:

Tuesday - Friday 10.00 - 17.00
 Saturday - Sunday 13.00 - 17.00
 Holiday Mondays 13.00 - 17.00

△ Who wants to be a millionaire?

△ 'Money' from Ancient China and the Solomon Islands

The museum is full of unique treasures from the HBOS collections.

Come and see...

- ▶ one million pounds in genuine £20 notes
- ▶ red feather and 'fish' money
- ▶ the first Halifax mortgage - for £120!
- ▶ Scotland's oldest banknote
- ▶ interactive maps and images of old Edinburgh

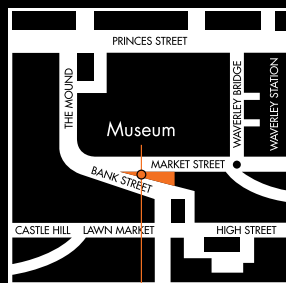

Pre-booked group and school visits welcome

Admission free

Museum on the Mound
 HBOS Headquarters
 The Mound
 Edinburgh
 EH1 1YZ

T: 0131 243 5464

www.museumonthemound.com

Entrance on Bank Street

△ View of the Old Town of Edinburgh by J. Clark, 1812

Photography by Antonia Reeve, Douglas Robertson and Paul Zanre
 School photographs courtesy of Sighthill Primary and George Watson's College

Money... and so much more

Welcome to the Museum on the Mound.

Discover the story of money - in all its shapes and forms. But there's a lot more to explore...

Hands On Fun!

The Museum is great for families and children - of all ages...

△ Bank of Scotland Head Office by David Bryce, 1864

△ Building the Bank - the easy way!

△ Cracking the safe in the Money Room

- ▷ death and disease
- ▷ crime and punishment
- ▷ fakes and forgeries
- ▷ savings and security
- ▷ women and work
- ▷ art and architecture

‘Brass’ rubbing with a difference ▷

Applying for life assurance -
▽ 1820s style

△ Police notice, 1888

△ Halifax mortgage advert, 1930s

△ A closer look at coins

△ Exploring historic Edinburgh

△ Union Bank of Scotland 'sunburst' £5, 1923